

Information for Self-Represented Accused Persons with Criminal Cases for College Park – the Ontario Court of Justice

Published: April 1, 2022

NEW April 4, 2022 – Return to In-Person Hearings for Pleas, Trials and Preliminary Hearings (unless a judge orders otherwise)

Beginning Monday, April 4, 2022, the Ontario Court of Justice will return to in-person hearings for many matters including pleas, trials and preliminary hearings. However, bail hearings (courtroom 501 and 507), judicial pre-trials (self rep JPTs heard on Mondays and Wednesdays in 511 court), and case management court (505) will remain the same with Zoom audio or video appearances.

NEW 503 Court (Plea Court) will be in-person unless the judge orders otherwise.

- Mondays – Trial Readiness/Triage Court in 503 court at 9:00 am will still allow lawyers and self rep defendants to appear by Zoom audio or video (if the courts are closed on Monday because it is a long weekend Trial Readiness Court will be held on the Tuesday in 503 court at 9:00 am). All other matters will be heard starting at 10 am.
- Tuesdays – 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of a month, 503 court will open at 8:30 am for PIC (Private Information Court). The judge will come in at 10 am.
- Wednesdays – 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of a month 503 court will open at 9:00 am for PARS intake. The judge will come in at 10 am.

Out of custody defendants maybe allowed to plead guilty by video if both the Crown and the defendant are consenting, and neither party is seeking a jail sentence.

NEW Trials (502, 504, 506, 508, 509 or 510) – 10 am start will be in-person unless the judge orders otherwise.

If you have been assigned a trial or preliminary hearing date(s), then you should expect that your case will proceed in-person unless a Judge at the judicial pre-trial ordered otherwise.

If you do not have a lawyer, then you may qualify for summary legal advice with duty counsel. However, duty counsel will NOT represent you at your trial or preliminary hearing.

Duty Counsel tel. 416-646-1276 or 1-800-668-8258

If you have a computer, then you can check their website at www.legalaid.on.ca

Also, please read this Guide for more information on getting ready for your upcoming trial.

505 court is an extremely busy court. We are working on ways to make it more efficient, but in the meantime, we need your help:

- If possible, use the video links as opposed to audio conferencing.
- Speak to a lawyer or call the duty counsel before you appear in court. Appear on time. Currently in 505 court duty counsel is only available between 1:30-4:30 pm
- Think about what you want to do: there will be little, if any, time to ask questions.

Bail Court – 501 and 507 (No changes)

Bail hearings in 501 and 507 are being conducted by Zoom audio or video only. Bail court starts at 10 am. Sureties may attend by video or audio unless the otherwise directed.

As of April 2021, 51 Division now has Video Access via JVN (Justice Video Network) for duty counsel, community agencies and Defence counsel to speak to the clients prior to their court appearance (on Zoom). Here are the JVN access codes for both video and audio access:

Downtown East Justice Centre – as of May 27, 2021

The Downtown East Justice Centre provides a new court process to deal with your criminal charges. It connects persons who have committed crimes to appropriate supports to help address the underlying causes of their behavior. Supports may include services for mental or physical health, addictions, housing, and employment. The goal of the Justice Centre is to reduce the risk of a person committing further crimes and to improve community safety. A key part of the Justice Centre is holding persons who commit crimes accountable while supporting individuals and communities harmed by crime. The Justice Centre is only available for people who wish to resolve their charges without a trial.

What cases are eligible for the Downtown East Justice Centre?

The Downtown Justice Centre is available for adults

- who have committed certain low to moderate level crimes;
- were arrested and charged by 51 Division police officers; and
- present certain socio-demographic risk factors, including under-housing, addictions, mental health concerns or developmental disabilities.

If you are interested in participating in the Justice Centre, you can contact duty counsel at 416-646-1276 or email the Justice Centre at justicecentres-torontodowntowneast@ontario.ca

Where is the Downtown East Justice Centre?

The Downtown East Justice Centre operates in partnership with Sound Times Support Services, located at 280 Parliament St. in the Toronto downtown east neighbourhood. During the COVID-19 pandemic, all of the health and social services of the Justice Centre will be offered in person at that location. Court appearances will NOT be in-person but will occur by Zoom video or phone. Access to the internet for your virtual court appearance will be available at Sound Times.

When is the Downtown East Justice Centre Court Day?

The Downtown East Justice Centre court day is every Thursday in virtual “JC”. JC Court starts at 10:30 a.m. but the staff at Sound Times will assist you with a specific time for your appearance.

511 Self Represented Judicial Pre-Trial Court –Mondays and Wednesdays by Zoom Video or Zoom audio

If you do not have a lawyer or legal representative and you want to either set a trial date or discuss a possible resolution (on television or in the movies, they call it a “plea bargain”), the Justice of the Peace in 505, may assign you a date and time for a Judicial Pre-Trial.

Self-Represented JPTs are heard on Mondays and Wednesdays, by either Zoom audio or Zoom video in courtroom 511. You will not be allowed to attend in person into a courtroom. A Judge and a Crown Attorney will also be appearing virtually in the judicial pre-trial hearing. The proceedings are recorded, and you can order (and pay for) a copy of a transcript, if you wish.

It is very important that you call/appear by video on time. If you are late, then the Judicial Pre-Trial will have to be rescheduled. Also, please make sure you have read the disclosure, have a pen and paper handy to write notes, and think about the questions you may want to ask the Crown Attorney and/or the Judge.

After the JPT, you might be ordered to return for what is referred to as an “interim date”, in other words, a date in between the JPT and the trial date. The interim date could be ordered for many reasons including to follow-up regarding outstanding disclosure, for the Court to order s. 486.3 counsel, to see if the self rep defendant has retained a lawyer, and/or to ensure that both sides are ready to proceed to trial. It is very important to mark ALL future court dates in a calendar, so you remember to attend. If you do not attend, the Court may issue a bench warrant for your arrest and possibly cancel the trial date.

General Information for Self-Represented Accused Persons

1. How do I find my next court date?

NEW - Effective March 21, 2022, you can search for your next court date (or if a bench warrant has been issued) in the Court Case Search Tool (the “Tool”).

The Tool is available online at: <https://www.ontario.ca/page/search-court-cases-online> and follow the directions to create a One Key account.

Or you may:

2. I already have a date set for my trial or preliminary hearing. Should I come to the College Park courthouse on that date?

Yes, your trial/preliminary hearing will be proceeding in person unless ordered otherwise.

You should immediately contact someone at College Park court to find out more about what is happening with your case. You may wish to speak to a Crown Attorney or speak to a Judge.

If you do not attend, the Court may issue a bench warrant for your arrest or a bench summons.

3. How can I speak to a judge before my trial date?

You will have had a chance to speak to the judge at the Judicial Pre-trial. Afterwards, you may be ordered to return to 503 court for an interim date or adjourned straight to the trial date.

However, you may also be adjourned to attend Trial Readiness Court (also referred as Triage Court) which takes place the Monday before the week your trial is scheduled to begin. Trial Readiness Court is heard in 503 at 9:00 am. You can appear by Zoom video or Zoom audio. The purpose of this Court to check-in with both the Crown and the Defence (or self rep defendant) to make sure that both sides are ready to proceed to their trial or preliminary inquiry.

If you have a trial date coming up, your trial will not be adjourned unless you or the Crown Attorney requests an adjournment before a Judge. If you do not appear for your trial date, then there could be a bench warrant for your arrest.

4. If you do not have a lawyer, you may wish to:

- Retain (hire) a private lawyer
 - o If you do not know how to find a criminal lawyer, you can contact the Law Society of Ontario's Law Society Referral Service at www.findlegalhelp.ca.
 - o If you are in crisis or cannot access this service online, you can phone the Law Society Referral Service directly at 1-855-947-5255 or 416-947-5255 (within the GTA), Monday - Friday, between 9 am - 5 pm.
or on the web: <https://lso.ca/public-resources/finding-a-lawyer-or-paralegal/law-society-referral-service>;
- Apply to Legal Aid Ontario (LAO) for a Legal Aid Certificate

- To apply for Legal Aid Certificate, please call 1-800-668-8258.
 - Legal Aid is not available to everyone. LAO applies a financial and legal test to determine eligibility.
 - When you call LAO to apply for a certificate, you will be asked questions about your financial circumstances and about the charges you are facing.
 - If you are granted a Legal Aid Certificate, you would then provide this certificate to a lawyer of your choosing. If that lawyer accepts the certificate, LAO will pay the lawyer the cost of representing you.
- Contact local Duty Counsel
 - Duty Counsel are criminal lawyers who work for LAO. Duty Counsel may be able to provide legal advice and assistance to eligible individuals.
 - If you would like to speak with Duty Counsel, please call 416-646-1276 and leave a message with your name and a telephone number you can be reached at.
 - Duty Counsel cannot guarantee same day assistance and should be contacted well in advance of your court appearance.
- Apply to the law students
 - Both law schools in Toronto, the University of Toronto law school and Osgood Hall law school, have student legal aid societies that offer representation to low income individuals who are not likely to receive a jail sentence if found guilty.
 - Community and Legal Aid Services Program (CLASP) at Osgoode Hall – to apply, call (416) 736-5029.
 - Downtown Legal Services (DLS) at the University of Toronto – to apply, call 416 978-6447.
 - When you apply to the law students for their assistance, they will ask you questions about your financial circumstances and about the charges you are facing.

 Tel: 416-326-6500
 Email: MAG.InterpreterServices@ontario.ca

Also, more information can be found online at <https://www.attorneygeneral.jus.gov.on.ca/english/courts/interpreters/>.

6. I have a disability and will have trouble attending the courthouse. What should I do?

If you have questions about a courthouse's accessibility features, you can contact the Accessibility Coordinator at:

Tel: 416-326-7919

Email: attorneygeneral@ontario.ca

Moving My Case Forward:

7. How should I prepare for my court date?

If your next court date is in 505 court (case management court), it is important that you take the following steps:

- Find your next court date and ensure you attend court on the day and time required;
- Obtain the disclosure materials from the Crown's office;
- Consult with Legal Aid for free initial legal advice, and if you do not have a lawyer, contact your local duty counsel office; and
- Attend College Park Courtroom 505, virtual case management court by video or phone at the time required. If you do not appear by video or call in by phone, the Court may issue a bench warrant and you will be arrested (if you are on a release with a surety, then the surety may also be ordered to pay an amount of money).

8. What is disclosure and how can I get disclosure?

A person accused of committing a crime is entitled by law to receive a copy of the evidence that the Crown possesses or controls that is not clearly irrelevant or privileged. This could include: police notes, witness statements, diagrams, and photographs. This information is called "disclosure". You can contact the College Park Crown Attorney's Office for disclosure requests:

Tel. 416-325-8994

Email: VirtualCrownCollegeParkToronto@ontario.ca

When you contact the Crown Attorney's office, be prepared to provide:

- o your full name
- o your date of birth
- o a list of your charges
- o the police occurrence number (found on your release papers)
- o your email address, telephone number; and mailing address
- o if seeking additional disclosure then also include the SCOPE number

Please also advise whether you have a secure email address where you can receive disclosure. If you do not have an email address, the Crown will arrange to have the disclosure couriered to you.

This information is required so the Crown can provide you with disclosure on an ongoing basis.

In some cases, you may also be asked to provide identification or other information confirming your identity, because the Crown must ensure that disclosure is released to the correct person.

9. Part of the disclosure includes a 911 call as well as statements from witnesses, which police recorded on video. I want to listen and see this evidence, but the Crown tells me that I cannot have copies of these recordings. How can I hear and see this disclosure?

You should call the Crown's office at 416-325-8994 and make an appointment to come into the courthouse to review this video/audio disclosure:

- They will assign you an appointment date and time;
- You should bring a pen and paper, but recording equipment is not allowed;
- In order to enter the courthouse, you will need to complete a COVID-19 self-test evaluation and follow government protocol including wearing a mask;
- Advise the officers at the front security station that you have an appointment to review disclosure;
- Advise the staff at the front window;
- Staff will escort you into a room, where the video is played (staff will be nearby monitoring);
- There will be an instruction sheet on the door regarding what to do if you need assistance;
- Once completed, you will be escorted from the room.

For more information about how criminal cases in the OCJ are conducted, you can use a computer and read the Guide for Accused Persons in Criminal Trial on the OCJ website at:

<https://www.ontariocourts.ca/ocj/self-represented-parties/guide-for-accused-in-criminal-cases/guide/>

10. I would like to speak with the prosecutor about my case. How can I do this without attending the courthouse?

Currently College Park Crown Attorneys will not be meeting with self-represented defendants (often referred to as “Crown Pre-trials).

DO NOT ATTEND COURT IN PERSON. If you have hired a lawyer or legal professional, then they can speak to the matter in case management court of you.

11. Will I be able to speak to duty counsel in courtroom 505 before I speak to the Justice of the Peace?

You should contact Legal Aid Duty Counsel BEFORE the day of your criminal Case Management Court appearance. Ideally at least a week or two before your first appearance in courtroom 505, so you can arrange an appointment to speak to a Duty Counsel lawyer by telephone to see if you qualify for their free legal advice.

Currently Duty Counsel at College Park appear in the 505 virtual hearing room at between 1:30 and 4:30 pm, and the lawyer will give a brief introduction and overview of what to expect in the courtroom and some of the terms and phrases, such as what is “disclosure”. They may or may not have time to answer your questions. They will also not pass on a message to the Justice of the Peace in 505 court on your behalf.

Instead you should call Duty counsel a week or two before you come to court.

Duty Counsel
Tel: 416-646-1276 or 1-800-668-8258

12. I have already spoken with the prosecutor and would like to speak with a judge about my case. Can I do this?

Depending on the circumstance, you may be assigned a date and time for an Self Represented Judicial Pre-trial before a judge, which will be heard on Mondays and Wednesdays in 511 court. Go back to page 7 of this Guide or Click here for more information.

Your court appearance may be by telephone or possibly Zoom video conferencing. Please see a list of Community Resources – Here to Help You at the end of this Guide

13. I have been charged with a domestic related incident and I have heard about the PARS Program. What is it and how can I learn if I am eligible for the program?

The PARS program stands for the Partner Assault Response Program. You find general information about the program on their website:

<https://www.parprogram.ca/en/>

At College Park, all domestic related matters start with a court appearance on Fridays, in 505 court. It is a very busy virtual courtroom so you will not have a chance to speak to duty counsel. Please call duty counsel before your first appearance and see if you are eligible for free legal advice or speak to a legal representative.

The Crown Attorney decides which cases may be eligible for the PARS Program. All PARS matters will be adjourned to Wednesdays in courtroom 503, which starts at 9:00 am.

14. How do I contact the College Park probation officer?

At College Park please call:

Tel: 416-325-0320

15. When is Gladue Court?

College Park's Gladue Court is heard on Thursdays in 506 Court.

16. I have heard about mental health diversion programs. What are they? How would I apply?

Mental Health Diversion Programs are designed to divert people out of the criminal justice system through various measures such as participating in treatment and other community programs to provide the client with stability and necessary supports. At College Park, you would need to contact Judy Virgo at 416-482-4103 ext. 222 or, if you have access to a computer, then email the Fred Victor Mental Health Court Workers at mhcourtdiversion@fredvictor.org. The worker would then arrange a phone appointment with you to discuss the program and complete an intake form. The form is then forwarded to the College Park's Crown's office, who has the final say whether someone is accepted for a mental health diversion program.

17. How can I plead guilty to the charges against me?

Before you decide to plead guilty, you are strongly encouraged to obtain legal advice.

If you do not have access to a legal professional, you can contact the College Park Crown Attorney's Office (Tel. 416-325-8994 or email at VirtualCrownCollegeParkToronto@ontario.ca) to set a date for pleading guilty by providing the following information:

- o your full name
- o your date of birth
- o a list of your charges
- o the police occurrence number (found on your release papers)
- o your next court date
- o the date you would like to plead guilty

Starting April 4, 2022 – all guilty pleas will be heard in person in 503, which starts at 10 am unless the judge orders otherwise.

18. I would like to set a trial date as soon as possible. When will I be able to set a trial date?

First, you should make sure that you have received disclosure. The Crown's office has set up a process where you can email the Crown's office and they will give you access to a virtual disclosure hub, where you can access, read, and download your disclosure.

You can contact the College Park Crown Attorney's Office (Tel. 416-325-8994 or email at VirtualCrownCollegeParkToronto@ontario.ca)

Next, in 505 Case Management Court, the Crown Attorney will likely have scheduled you for a Judicial Pre-Trial and have given you a specific date and time to appear by Zoom video or audio in 511 court. Self-represented JPTs are heard Mondays and Wednesdays.

Lastly, the trial date is selected after both you and the Crown Attorney contact the Trial Coordinators. The Trial Coordinators are very busy re-scheduling and scheduling trial dates. If you are representing yourself, you will need to give your phone number(s) and email address(es) so the Trial Coordinators will be able to contact you.

You are encouraged to obtain legal advice from a legal representative who will be able to tell you about local directions involving court scheduling. Updated information will be posted on the OCJ website and should be consulted frequently.

19. Am I able to enter a courthouse to file court documents?

If you have materials that you would like to serve and file with the court, resuming again on April 4, 2022, this can be done in person, but also electronically by email

Email: CollegePark.OCJ.courts@ontario.ca

20. How can I apply to change the conditions of my release (e.g., of a bail/ release order or a police undertaking)?

If you are concerned about your bail/release conditions or the conditions in an undertaking to the police, you can fill out an Application For Consent Variation Bail Form, which can be found at:

<https://www.ontariocourts.ca/ocj/files/forms/COVID-19-OCJ-Consent-Bail-Variation-EN.pdf>

Or send an email to the Crown: VirtualCrownCollegeParkToronto@ontario.ca

Speak to a lawyer of your choosing.

Contact Duty Counsel: tel. 416-646-1276 or 1-800-668-8258

21. I don't have a scheduled court appearance, but I would like to act as a surety and may have to testify at a bail hearing for a person who is in custody. Am I expected to come to the courthouse to testify?

Bail hearings will continue to be heard by Zoom video or Zoom audio. Check this Guide at page 4 for more information. A person who is prepared to act as a surety should contact the lawyer representing the accused person, or duty counsel who is assisting the accused person. You should ask the accused person for the name and contact information of their lawyer, if they have a lawyer.

22. I am not in-custody but I urgently require the court to consider my case. What can I do to bring my case to the court's attention?

If you have an urgent criminal matter, please speak with your lawyer. If you do not have a lawyer, please contact Legal Aid Ontario at 1-800-668-8258 for assistance in submitting a request to have your matter brought before the Court. Requests to bring a matter forward must be approved by a judge. If you do not have access to a legal professional, you can contact the College Park Crown Attorney's Office to set a date to speak to the court:

Email: VirtualCrownCollegeParkToronto@ontario.ca and provide the following:

- o your full name
- o your date of birth
- o a list of your charges
- o the police occurrence number (found on your release papers)
- o your next court date
- o the date you would like to speak to the court
- o the reason your case requires urgent attention

If you want to have your trial go ahead during the pandemic and want to appear using a phone or a computer or other device rather than by coming to the courthouse, you can ask a Crown, the judge at the Judicial Pre-trial and/or the Trial Readiness Hearing about how this can be done. You are encouraged to get legal advice before you agree to attend your trial using a phone, computer or other device rather than by appearing in person at the courthouse.

Note: The above information is meant to assist self-represented litigants with common questions during the courts' re-opening and does not replace legal advice. Please contact a lawyer or paralegal or the courthouse to obtain case specific information about the circumstances of your case. If you are a self-represented litigant with a family law or provincial offences matter, please visit the OCJ website for specific resources that might apply to your case as this information is meant to assist self-represented litigants with criminal cases before the Ontario Court of Justice.
